Thai Lessons Chiang Mai

How to use this workbook

For the student

Do not try to memorize everything. Choose one mission that matches your real life this week. Practice the phrase, use it once, then send a voice note for correction.

For the teacher

Teach one situation per lesson. Use the phrase builder, roleplay the likely reply, then walk the learner into a real cafe, market, lobby, or map situation.

Lesson promise

By the end of each lesson, the learner can say one useful sentence in a real Chiang Mai situation.

Pronunciation rule

Romanization is only a guide. First build confidence and politeness. Then correct rhythm, vowel length, and tone feeling with voice notes.

60-minute on-site lesson flow

Time	Teacher action	Student output
0-5	Choose the mission: cafe, market, restaurant, driver, condo, or social Thai.	"I need Thai for ____ this week."
5-15	Teach khrap/kha, slow rhythm, and the phrase formula.	Student repeats the base phrase 5 times.
15-35	Build variations with choices from the table.	Student makes 3 personal sentences.
35-50	Roleplay likely replies and real-world body language.	Student answers without reading.
50-60	Assign one real-life try + voice note.	Student knows exactly what to do after class.

Thai survival basics before missions

Polite endings

ครับ khrap — commonly used by men.

ค่ะ / ค่ะ kha — commonly used by women.
Use ค่ะ for many questions.

Useful beginner sentence formula

Request + thing/action + detail + polite ending

Example: ขอกาแฟเย็น + หวานน้อย + ครับ

Function	Thai	Roman	Use when...
Hello	สวัสดีครับ / ค่ะ	sà-wàt-dii khrap / kha	Entering a shop, class, condo office.
Thank you	ขอบคุณครับ / ค่ะ	khàawp-khun khrap / kha	Every time someone helps.
Sorry / excuse me	ขอโทษครับ / ค่ะ	khǎaw-thôot khrap / kha	Interrupting or getting attention politely.
Can you speak slowly?	พูดช้าๆ ได้ไหมครับ / ค่ะ	phûut cháa-cháa dâai mǎi?	When Thai comes back too fast.
I speak a little Thai	พูดไทยนิดหน่อย	phûut Thai nít-nòi	Lower pressure and create friendliness.

Teacher cue: Correct rhythm before grammar. Learners need a successful feeling first.
